

SEND Snapshot from Specialist Learning Support

Explore the resources and links below for at-home learning and support. Parent / carer supervision and guidance is needed to ensure content is relevant to the age of your child.

Academic

Maths:

Everyday Maths at Home: click here

Some practical maths activities from White Rose Maths suitable for key stage 1 and 2.

Home Learning from White Rose Maths: click here

A collection of maths lessons from Early Years to Year 8.

Reading:

StoryTime4HomeTime: click here

Author James Mayhew will be live-streaming himself reading various books at 'home-time' appropriate for children and young people in primary school.

Elevenes with The World of David Walliams: click here

David Walliams is releasing a free children's audio story every day for the next month appropriate for children and young people in key stage 2 and key stage 3.

Hugo Pepper: click here

An animated audio book read by Chris Riddell appropriate for children and young people in key stage 2.

Museums, Art and Culture

Edinburgh Zoo webcams: Click here

Fantastic live feeds from the homes of Edinburgh Zoos pandas, penguins, tigers, and koalas. Suitable for children and young people of all ages.

Mylene's Music Klass: click here

Free to access music lessons by Mylene Klass. Suitable from birth onwards.

Hogwarts Digital Escape Room: Click here

An interactive escape room experience with clips from the movies. Suitable for children and young people from key stage 2 onwards.

How to support children who are worried about Coronavirus / Covid-19

Covibook: click here

A short and reassuring book about Coronavirus suitable for young children and/or those with additional needs. Also available in a number of languages.

Useful information for parents/carers of children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities

Update from IPSEA: click here

An update from Independent Provider of Special Educational Advice (IPSEA) on COVID-19, school closures and SEN provision.

Coronavirus Update from Mencap: click here

Easy to read information about Coronavirus; suitable for individuals with additional needs.

Staying Healthy and Active

PE with Joe: click here

Daily PE sessions with The Body Coach, Joe Wicks. Appropriate for all age groups.

Get Kids Cooking: click here

A great collection of kid-friendly recipes from The Naked Chef. Suitable for key stage 1 onwards (with adult supervision).

Dance class with Oti Mabuse: click here

Learn a dance to accompany the wonderful Trolls movie! There are links to other great dance classes on Oti's main YouTube page. Suitable for key stage 1 onwards.

NHS 10-minute workouts: click here

These great workouts have been created by the NHS to be easily completed at home without needing specialist equipment. Appropriate for key stage 4 and young adults.

Apps for children and young people with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities

Heat Pad: click here

A 'relaxing and entertaining' sensory app which responds to the heat of your fingertips. Appropriate for children 4+. In-app purchases can be turned off in 'settings'.

Fireworks Arcade: click here

A fun app for all ages with displays of light and sound. Appropriate for children 4+. In-app purchases can be turned off in 'settings'.

Pocket Ponds: click here

A calming, interactive zen garden experience to help young people calm down. Appropriate for children 12+. In-app purchases can be turned off in 'settings'.

Language Therapy for Kids: click here

This app has a number of different activities and has been trialled by young people with delayed language. Appropriate for children 4+. In-app purchases can be turned off in 'settings'.

DD's Dictionary – A Dyslexic's Dictionary: click here

A simple to use dictionary built to support young people with dyslexia. Appropriate for children 4+.

Your Specialist Learning Support team:

and newest member Nikki Slade!